

Agadir

Photo: Gildas_29/Shutterstock.com

Matej Kastelic / Shutterstock.com

saiko3p / Shutterstock.com

Jaroslav Grudzinski / Shutterstock.com

With approximately 340 days of sunshine a year and six kilometres of soft white-sand beaches, Agadir is Morocco's premiere beach resort. Nestled among the verdant valleys of the Great Souss and with the majestic range of the Anti-Atlas rearing up behind it, this modern, cosmopolitan city has all the attendant pleasures, thrills and luxuries you could ask for.

Featured

Port de Plaisance Marina

Don't miss this beautiful marina located south of the commercial port, surro...

Biking

Cycling is the perfect way to discover some of the more hidden spots of Agad...

Agadir Crocodile Park

If close encounters with reptiles excite you rather than induce fear, Agadir...

Museum of Amazigh Culture

Museum of Amazigh Culture (Musee Municipal du Patrimoine Amazigh) offers a f...

Camel Rides

The best way to experience the genuine atmosphere of Morocco and Agadir is f...

Top 5

Agadir Beach

Agadir's top attraction is the six-mile crescent shaped beach. There are man...

Kasbah

Built in 1540, all that remains of the old Kasbah are the fortified walls, h...

Souk al-Had

Immerse yourself in the sights and sounds of Agadir's walled souk and get re...

Fishing Port

If you're looking for a taste of the hustle and bustle of a typically Morocc...

Agadir Medina

Agadir Medina (La Médina d'Agadir) is a fascinating reconstruction of a typi...

THE CITY

Maciej Czekajewski / Shutterstock.com

The beating heart of Agadir around which everything revolves is its spectacular crescent shaped bay. The white sandy beach, which stretches as far as the eye can see, provides some of the safest bathing in Morocco and is the daytime destination for most visitors.

Whether it is soaking up the sun, taking a camel ride or catching some waves, the beach provides something for all tastes. Tracing the curve of the bay is Boulevard 20 Aout, Agadir's main thoroughfare along which you will find many of its exclusive hotels and beachside resorts and a host of cafés, bars and restaurants.

One block from here, you will find the city's main shopping area, centred on Boulevard Hassan II and Avenue du Prince Moulay Abdullah. Further inland is the area of New Talborjt, where most of Agadir's budget accommodation is to be found.

DO & SEE

Elena Odareeva/Shutterstock.com

To get a taste of the hustle and bustle of old Agadir, head to the port, where you can watch fishermen bring in the daily catch, head out to the souk and do some haggling, or trek up to the remains of the 16th-century Kasbah and take in the spectacular sights of the bay.

Agadir Beach

Agadir's top attraction is the six-mile crescent shaped beach. There are many places in Agadir that are well suited for surfing, like Devil's Rock, Imesouane Bay and Ankhor Point. If you are interested in learning to surf, there are a number of schools and camps to help you get started.

Photo: John_Walker / Shutterstock.com

Address: Devils Rock, Agadir

Kasbah

Built in 1540, all that remains of the old Kasbah are the fortified walls, however, the trip up the hill to this historic site is worth it for the view alone. Engraved into the hill in Arabic are the words God, King and Country; Moroccans are forbidden from speaking ill of any of the three. If you are interested in history you can easily find a professional guide to take you on a tour.

Photo: saiko3p/Shutterstock.com

Address: Kasbah, Agadir

More Info: Hilltop 7 km northwest of the town

Souk al-Had

Immerse yourself in the sights and sounds of Agadir's walled souk and get ready to haggle for souvenirs. A "souk" is a local market selling spices, textiles and jewellery. If you take a taxi to the Souk al-Had do specify it by name, since some taxi drivers might instead take you to a different souk. You'll recognise the real souk by its ochre wall and the numbered gates.

Photo: Yudina_Elena/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rue de 18 Novembre, Agadir

Fishing Port

If you're looking for a taste of the hustle and bustle of a typically Moroccan fish market, complete with old fishing boats, nets and raucous fishermen, then head for the fishing port. It is a great place to wander around, take pictures and maybe buy some of the city's freshest fish to cook at home if you're so inclined - otherwise, stop by one of the seafood restaurants in the vicinity.

Photo: Jacques VANNI/Shutterstock.com

Address: Fishing Port, Agadir

More Info: Follow Boulevard Mohammed V, 1.5 km East

Agadir Medina

Agadir Medina (La Médina d'Agadir) is a fascinating reconstruction of a typical Moroccan Berber village. It was built using traditional building techniques and local materials. Today, visitors can stroll the alleys and shop in the many small boutiques, all while taking in the colours, aromas and bustle of the market.

Photo: Maciej Czekajewski / Shutterstock.com

Address: Aéroport Militaire BenSergao, Agadir

Opening hours: Wed-Mon 9am-6pm

Phone: +212 661 396261

Museum of Amazigh Culture

Museum of Amazigh Culture (Musée Municipal du Patrimoine Amazigh) offers a fascinating insight into the culture and art of the Berbers, the original inhabitants of Morocco. You can see a collection of old Berber musical instruments, carpets, architecture, pottery, jewellery and traditional clothing from the 18th and 19th century.

Photo: Monkey Business Images / Shutterstock.com

Address: Avenue Hassan II, Agadir

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 9:30am-12:30pm and 2pm-5:30pm

Phone: +212 528 82 16 32

Port de Plaisance Marina

Don't miss this beautiful marina located south of the commercial port, surrounded by shopping and new condos. This marina was constructed in 2008 and has supermarkets as well as fresh produce markets close by, and it is perfect for a stroll in the afternoon sun.

Photo: Stepniak / Shutterstock.com
 Address: Place Tamri Talborjt, Agadir
 Phone: +212 5 28 82 86 86
 Email: info@portmarinaagadir.com

Golf

In the area of Agadir, there are three different golf clubs. The Agadir Royal Golf Club, with 9 holes, is the oldest one, founded in 1951, while the other two, Les Dunes Golf Club and Le Soleil Golf Club, opened in the 1990's. The climate here is perfect for golfing year-round.

Photo: VectorLifestylepic / Shutterstock.com

Le Musée de l'Argan

This isn't, technically, a museum, but rather a traditional Eastern spa with a hammam as well as body and facial treatments. Come here to enjoy a thorough scrub and utter relaxation, with treatments featuring locally produced Argan oil.

Photo: LuckyImages / Shutterstock.com
 Address: Avenue Moulay Youssef, Agadir
 Opening hours: Daily 10am-9pm
 Phone: +212 5288 48782
 Email: museedelargan@gmail.com

Agadir Birds Valley

Birds Valley (Vallée des Oiseaux) is a small zoo with a focus on birds. With its playground, numerous different animals and no entrance fee, this is a perfect place for the family to visit, but be aware that it can be very crowded during weekends since it is also very popular among locals.

Photo: Tracy Starr / Shutterstock.com
 Address: Boulevard du 20 Aout, Agadir
 Opening hours: Daily 11am-6pm

Cooking Classes

If you love Moroccan cuisine and want to learn to prepare your own tagine and couscous, then sign up for a cooking class. It doesn't matter if you are a beginner or more advanced chef, the friendly instructors guide all through Moroccan culinary tradition.

Photo: Curioso/Shutterstock.com
 Internet: www.agadir-cooking-class.me.ma
 Email: agadir.cooking.class@gmail.com

Camel Rides

The best way to experience the genuine atmosphere of Morocco and Agadir is from the saddle of a camel. Several companies offer the opportunity to take a tour along the long sandy beach and watch the beautiful sunset on camel-back.

Photo: Yasser El Dershaby / Shutterstock.com

Phone: +212 627 462 652

Internet: www.ecolodge-adventures.com

Biking

Cycling is the perfect way to discover some of the more hidden spots of Agadir and its surroundings. Book a tour with a guide to learn more about the country, city and its highlights. There are tours for different levels.

Photo: Dudarev Mikhail / Shutterstock.com

Phone: +212 627 462 652

Internet: www.ecolodge-adventures.com

Agadir Oufella Ruins

The original settlement of Agadir was once located here, until a devastating earthquake destroyed the town in 1960. The ruins stand as a sombre reminder of the past and are open to visitors: go for a guided tour, a camel ride or just hike up on your own and to take the perfect photos of today's Agadir skyline.

Photo: Stepniak / Shutterstock.com

Address: Agadir Oufella, Agadir

Taghazout Beach

North of Agadir, this 8km-long sandy beach, first frequented by hippies who came here in the 1960's, is considered to be one of the best surf spots in Morocco, but it is also well-visited by people just looking for a relaxing day in the sun.

Photo: swuerfel/Shutterstock.com

Address: Taghazout Beach, Agadir

Agadir Crocodile Park

If close encounters with reptiles excite you rather than induce fear, Agadir's CrocoParc is a definitive must-visit. Nile crocodiles are the stars of the show, but there are other reptilian inhabitants, such as snakes and iguanas. There's a free shuttle that runs to the park from the downtown.

Photo: Catchlight Lens/Shutterstock.com

Address: RN 8 PK 16 80046 Drarga, Agadir

Phone: +212 5282 97931

Internet: <https://www.crocoparc.com>

DINING

upslim / Shutterstock.com

As one of the world's biggest suppliers of sardines, Agadir is a city that heavily features fish on its restaurant menus. From freshly grilled sardines to fish tagine, local cuisine draws its inspiration from the fruits of the sea.

There are three main zones when it comes to eating in Agadir: the beach, where many restaurants are located, and you have many different types of food to choose from; New Talbourjt, one of the cheapest areas to go for food; and Uniprix, with restaurants for both tourists and locals.

Le Flore

Located directly on the promenade, this café and restaurant is the perfect place for breakfast before a day on the beach or lunch in the sun. They are famous for their seafood dishes and are also open for dinner.

Photo: Kzenon/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rue Tawada, Agadir

Phone: +212 5288 48839

Le Jardin d'Eau

At Le Jardin d'Eau you can enjoy your meal either on the outside terrace or inside the stunning dining room. They serve traditional Moroccan and French food, made from organic and locally produced ingredients supplied by a collective farm south of the city. It's one of the city's best dining addresses; live music shows are hosted every night.

Photo: Ekaterina Pokrovsky/Shutterstock.com

Address: Boulevard du 20 Aout, Agadir

Phone: +212 28840195

Email: le.jardin.deau.agadir@gmail.com

Les Blancs

Boasting the best location in the city, right on the beach next to the Agadir Marina, Les Blancs serves top-notch Spanish cuisine. Visitors can enjoy their meal, usually paella or tapas, but also fish and meat dishes, with their toes dipped in the warm sand.

Photo: asife / Shutterstock.com

Address: Marina, Agadir

Phone: +212 5288 28368

Email: lesblancsagadir2.0@gmail.com

Fish Stalls

For that authentic Moroccan dining experience, head down to the port where there are a number of stalls selling excellent fresh fish dishes at low prices. One of the most popular dishes in Agadir is the fish tagine and this is the best place to try it.

Photo: Alexey Pevnev/Shutterstock.com

Address: Agadir Port, Agadir

Little Norway

Little Norway is known for serving food of very high quality in hearty portions. The name is a bit misleading, since this restaurant serves primarily French specialities, their signature dish being the fillet steak.

Photo: Maksim Toome/Shutterstock.com

Address: Complexe Tamlelt, Agadir

Phone: +212 288 40 848

Email: miryam_@hotmail.com

Riad Villa Blanche

If you are looking for fine dining in a romantic atmosphere, head to Riad Villa Blanche. The professional waiters serve beautiful and impeccable Moroccan dishes in a quiet and exquisite setting.

Photo: Nadya Lukic / Shutterstock.com
 Address: Secteur R n° 19, Agadir
 Phone: +212 5282 11313
 Internet: www.riadvillablancher.com/restaurant
 Email: info@riadvillablancher.com

Restaurant Daffy

This hidden gem serves delicious Moroccan cuisine at reasonable prices. The tagine is especially popular. The restaurant is located close to a mosque and alcoholic beverages are not served here.

Photo: Anneka / Shutterstock.com
 Address: Rue des Oranges, Agadir
 Phone: +212 5288 20068

Restaurant Côté Court

This stylish restaurant is adjacent to the Royal Tennis Club. It is well-visited by regulars, but tourists have also started to find their way here. They serve a mix of traditional Moroccan cuisine and international dishes.

Photo: Ramon grosso dolarea / Shutterstock.com
 Address: Avenue Hassan II, Royal Tennis Club Agadir, Agadir
 Phone: +212 671 957 133
 Email: cotecourttagadir@yahoo.com

Mezzo Mezzo

At Mezzo Mezzo guests can enjoy an authentic Italian meal at a reasonable price. You can choose from traditional dishes such as pizza, pasta and risotto and combine them with exquisite wines. The atmosphere and staff are warm and welcoming.

Photo: Denizo71 / Shutterstock.com
 Address: 19, Avenue Hassan II, Agadir
 Opening hours: Daily 7pm-1am
 Phone: + 212 5 28 84 88 19

Mauresque Lounge

Guests can revel in exquisite Mediterranean and Moroccan food in a traditional Moroccan dining room. The outdoor terrace is also charming, and whether you choose to sit inside or out, you will receive good service from the friendly waiters.

Photo: Karol Kozlowski / Shutterstock.com
 Address: Route de L'Oued Sous, Agadir
 Phone: +212 288 20444
 Internet: www.mauresquelounge.com

La Scala

Situated on the seafront, this restaurant is renowned for its mouth-watering seafood, though other options, such as pasta and meat dishes, are also offered. The atmosphere is classy but still relaxed, the food is always fresh and the staff is efficient and professional.

Photo: ilolab / Shutterstock.com
 Address: Rue de l'Oued Souss, Agadir
 Phone: +212 528 467 73
 More Info: Complexe Tamlelt

Le Vendôme

Le Vendôme offers not only delicious food in large portions but also a perfect view of the long sandy beach and the sea.

They serve both genuine Moroccan food and international dishes. This restaurant is often very well-visited, and a couple of times per week the food and drinks are accompanied by live performances.

Photo: Romaset / Shutterstock.com

Address: Chez Balaska Front Mer, Agadir

Phone: +212 5288 24816

Email: info@agadir-levendome.com

Mimi La Brochette

This is a small restaurant compared to the other restaurants you find along the promenade, but guests who come here are greeted with a warm welcome. The menu offers a good choice of seafood and the grilled dishes come highly recommended.

Photo: grafvision / Shutterstock.com

Address: Promenade Tawada, Corniche d'Agadir, Rue La Plage, Agadir

Phone: +212 6 67 29 06 20

Email: info@mimilabrochette.com

Chiche Kebab

When you are hungry for a quick kebab, pizza or hamburger, Chiche Kebab is a good place to head to. At this small restaurant you can revel in fast food at affordable prices. Their selection of dipping sauces for the kebabs is something special.

Photo: gkrphoto / Shutterstock.com

Address: Boulevard Hassan II, Agadir

Opening hours: Daily 8am-10pm

Phone: +212 5288 44677

Restaurant Scampi

Restaurant Scampi is located in the city centre of Agadir, and offers visitors options from a wide array of traditional Moroccan dishes. To accompany your meal, the wine list offers some really good alternatives, and everything is served by joyful and friendly waiters.

Photo: marco mayer / Shutterstock.com

Address: Bd Hassan 11, Agadir

CAFES

evp82 / Shutterstock.com

Agadir's gastronomic culture is influenced by the need to cater to the many different nationalities that flock to its restaurants and cafés, so you will find food to satisfy all palettes. There is a wide selection of traditional Moroccan cookies and French pastries for anyone with a sweet tooth. Wash it down with a cup of refreshing mint tea or a hot cup of coffee.

Avenue Hassan II

For a relaxing evening of drinking and conversation, head to one of the numerous restaurants and cafes at Avenue Hassan II. The stylish establishments along this avenue have an almost Parisian feel to them and are a favourite haunt of locals in the mood for coffee, mint tea or fresh orange juice, accompanied by delectable desserts.

Photo: glasseyes view / Shutterstock.com

Address: Avenue Hassan II, Agadir

La Fontaine

La Fontaine, located in the city centre, is a great place to sit back and do some people-watching. Indulge in one of their sweet fancies or grab a snack. It is a very popular meeting place among locals, favoured for its rich coffee and free WiFi.

Photo: Troy Rocco/Shutterstock.com

Address: Boulevard Hassan II, Agadir

Phone: +212 5288 48341

Patisserie Tafarnout

Patisserie Tafarnout has been around since 1984 and is still going strong. Here you can expect Moroccan pastries and cakes of high quality. They also offer sandwiches, fresh juices and typical Moroccan mint tea.

Photo: yosefus/Shutterstock.com

Address: Boulevard Hassan II, Agadir

Opening hours: Daily 6:30am-10:30pm

Phone: +212 5288 44450

Email: contact@tafarnout.ma

Orange Cafe

Orange Cafe's breezy inner courtyard, decorated in traditional Moroccan style, fountain included, provides a cool and relaxing place to escape the afternoon heat over a coffee or drink. Food is also served, including hamburgers and desserts, and of course, the orange juice is refreshing and delicious.

Photo: Andrew Angelov/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rue des Orangers, Agadir

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 8am-9pm

Phone: +212 5288 28140

Pâtisserie L'Anice

Stylish, elegant and modern Pâtisserie L'Anice serves perhaps the best pastries in the city. Everything on offer is marvellously presented by top pastry chefs, from their macarons and cookies to the specially designed custom cakes. Not to be missed by anyone with a sweet tooth.

Photo: Ekaterina Pokrovsky/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rue de la Foire, Agadir

Phone: +212 5288 48164

La Baraka

The unassuming sandwich shop La Baraka has a simple and informal vibe about it, a place people visit to indulge in decadent comfort food, including pizza, sandwiches and burgers, as well as ice cream, desserts and coffee.

Photo: Oliveshadow / Shutterstock.com

Address: 58, Avenue Khalid Ibn Oualid, Agadir

Opening hours: Daily 11am-1am

Phone: +212 5282 12060

Catanzaro

Catanzaro is a pleasant cafe and shisha bar with inviting and comfortable sofas. There is also breezy outdoor seating if you prefer to take in some fresh air. Large TVs often screen soccer matches and other important sporting events.

Good for breakfast.

Photo: Roman Rybaleov / Shutterstock.com

Address: N°1 Bd 20 Août , Cplxe Igoudar, Agadir

Phone: +212 5288 40513

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

saiko3p / Shutterstock.com

After a hard day's lounging on the beach, head into town, enjoy the local cocktails and sample the sights, sounds and smells of the Saharan beat. There is something for everyone who wants to maximise their visit to Agadir: nightclubs, bars and also a casino.

Avenue Hassan II

For a relaxing evening of drinking and conversation, head to one of the numerous restaurants and cafes at Avenue Hassan II. The stylish establishments along this avenue have an almost Parisian feel to them and are a favourite haunt of locals in the mood for coffee, mint tea or fresh orange juice, accompanied by delectable desserts.

Photo: glasseyes view / Shutterstock.com

Address: Avenue Hassan II, Agadir

Jour et Nuit

When the heat hits in the middle of the night and you are looking to quench your thirst, this 24-hour bar looks like an oasis in the middle of the desert.

Sit down at the large terrace, enjoy the superb location, and sip a cup of coffee or juice. Up the waterfront Rue la Plage is another location (closed between midnight and 6am).

Photo: RuffEngine/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rue la Plage, Agadir

Phone: +212 28 822 347

The English Pub

This is a popular Irish bar serving a good selection of British and Irish beers. Patrons can play pool, sip a pint at the bar or enjoy the fine outdoor seating.

Come here for a jolly good feeling.

Photo: bogdanhoda / Shutterstock.com

Address: Boulevard du 20 Aout, Agadir

Phone: +212 5288 47390
More Info: Tafoukt Complex

Flamingo Oriental Night Club

Flamingo is a popular nightclub that bumps and grinds to a great selection of the latest hits. On Saturdays this place tends to be very crowded and both tourists and locals enjoy themselves here.

Photo: Pressmaster / Shutterstock.com
Address: Rue du Oued Souss, Agadir
Phone: +212 648 382117

Papagayo

This is one of Agadir's hottest and most long-standing night spots, having been around since 1998. Come here to party till the early morning and then hit the beach afterwards.

Photo: ARENA Creative / Shutterstock.com
Address: Chemin des Dunes, Agadir
Opening hours: Daily 1am-5am
Phone: +212 615 795 596 / +212 528 845 400 / +212 621 261 652
Internet: www.riu.com
Email: papagayo.zanzibar.contact@gmail.com
More Info: Hotel Riu Tikida

So Lounge

So Lounge is the best and most exclusive night club in Agadir, wildly popular among both locals and visitors. Wide pillars support the high ceiling over the large dance floor where crowds gather to move to the sounds of local and international DJs and live acts.

Photo: santypan/Shutterstock.com
Address: Sofitel Agadir, Baie des Palmiers, Cité Founty P5, Agadir
Phone: +212 5288 20088

Orange Cafe

Orange Cafe's breezy inner courtyard, decorated in traditional Moroccan style, fountain included, provides a cool and relaxing place to escape the afternoon heat over a coffee or cocktail. Food is also served, including hamburgers and desserts, and of course, the orange juice is refreshing and delicious.

Photo: Andrew Angelov/Shutterstock.com
Address: Rue des Orangers, Agadir
Opening hours: Mon-Sat 8am-9pm
Phone: +212 5288 28140

Les Blancs

A 24/7 seafront establishment that serves alcohol. Cuisine offered is Spanish, and live bands perform on some nights.

Photo: asife / Shutterstock.com
Address: Marina, Agadir
Email: lesblancsagadir2.0@gmail.com

SHOPPING

Photo: Goran Bogicevic / Shutterstock.com

Be it haggling in the bustle of the souk or ambling in the air-conditioned luxury of the stores in the new town, Agadir will cater to your every shopping need. Whether you're looking for hand-crafted ceramics, leather garments, carved figurines or spices for that tagine you're going to impress the folks back home with, be sure to have hard cash and never to accept the first price.

City Centre

One of the main shopping areas is situated around Boulevard Hassan II and Avenue du Prince Moulay Abdullah. You will find numerous boutiques and department stores selling a range of fashion items, as well as souvenir shops selling all manner of Moroccan trinkets and hand-crafted pieces.

Photo: Jose AS Reyes / Shutterstock.com

Address: City Centre, Agadir

Souk al-Had

For the authentic Moroccan shopping experience, head for the walled Souk al-Had and wander around the winding alleys, breathe in the sights, sounds and smells of this lively marketplace. Here, you will find farmers selling their freshly grown produce, spices that fill the air and that are finely sculpted into pyramids and metalwork that has been skilfully manipulated into the most ornate lanterns. All this and a myriad of other curiosities and oddities are waiting to be discovered in the secret alleys of the souk.

Photo: Curioso / Shutterstock.com

Address: Souk al-Had, Agadir

Souk Berbere Artisanal

Souk Berbere Artisanal specialises in locally-designed jewellery, but the offer goes well beyond, including lavish rugs and carpets, ornate furniture, such as chests and bureaux, beautifully decorated vases and tea sets, and even bags and tajines, among many others.

Photo: pixbull / Shutterstock.com

Address: No. 28 Avenue al-Hamra, Agadir

Phone: +212 661 756 854

L'Echappee Belle Etape Berbere

L'Echappee Belle Etape Berbere is an elegant and modern boutique that showcases contemporary Moroccan design items, ranging from clothing and shoes to accessories, homeware and even some confectionery, jams and oils. Their products are on the cutting edge of design but manage to keep an authentic Moroccan feel.

Photo: BonnieBC / Shutterstock.com

Address: 7 Rue Mohamed Boufous, Agadir

Opening hours: Tue-Fri 10am-12pm and 3pm-6:30pm, Sat 10am-12pm and 3pm-6pm

Phone: +212 678 742227

Agadir Argan Shop

Argan oil is a locally produced oil extracted from the argan tree, native only to Morocco. It is used for many purposes, including for dipping bread and spraying on couscous and other dishes. It is also used in many cosmetic products and is said to have numerous benefits. Agadir Argan Shop offers a huge array of such products, and the staff is always happy to explain each one.

Photo: Luisa Puccini / Shutterstock.com

Address: Avenue Al Amir Abde Lkader, Agadir

Phone: +212 661 168277

Ensemble Artisanal

The Ensemble Artisanal Agadir consists of a multitude of merchant stalls and small shops offering items including traditional Moroccan crafts such as pottery, baskets, ironwork and many others. The market was established in the center of the new city of Agadir after 1960, because the old souk craft was destroyed entirely during an earthquake that shook the city.

Photo: Maurizio De Mattei / Shutterstock.com

Address: Avenue du 29 Fevrier, Agadir

Phone: +212 528 823 872

Marché Central

Marché Central is a relatively compact covered market with everything from local produce and fresh fruit to leather and crafts on offer. It's significantly smaller and more tranquil than the city's main souk.

Photo: streetflash/Shutterstock.com

Address: Blvd Hassan II, Agadir

Phone: Mon-Sat 8am-4pm

Librairie Al Mouggarr

If you're in need of some good reading material while visiting Agadir, head to Librairie Al Mouggarr. They have a wide selection of French titles, as well as English-language novels and guide books.

Photo: Yulia Grigoryeva / Shutterstock.com

Address: Ave du Prince Moulay Abdallah, Agadir

Opening hours: Mon-Thu 9am-12:30pm and 3pm-7:30pm, Fri 9am-12:30pm, Sat 3pm-7:30pm

Internet: www.almouggarr.com

Marjane Agadir

Marjane is a large department store that offers a huge range of products designed to meet all needs. Shoppers can find clothes, homeware, accessories, and of course a large supermarket where it is possible to find many international products, as well as local and regional items.

Photo: Lisa S. / Shutterstock.com

Address: Avenue Mohammed V, Agadir

Opening hours: Daily 9am-10pm

Phone: +212 5282 81340

Internet: www.marjane.ma

Tamara Surfshop and Skateshop

If you're looking to take advantage of the great surfing opportunities that can be found in and around Agadir, Tamara Surf and Skateshop can provide you with everything you might need, from boards to suits and accessories, as well as skate gear and clothes.

Photo: Oleg V. Ivanov / Shutterstock.com

Address: 61 Av Amir Abd Kadir Massira, Agadir

Opening hours: Daily 10am-10pm

Phone: +212 642 397112

Internet: www.marocsk8.com

TOURIST INFORMATION

upslim / Shutterstock.com

Al-Massira Airport

Al-Massira Airport is located 28 km from the city centre. To get to and from the airport you can take bus or taxi. Local bus number 22 goes from the airport to Inezgane, a suburb to Agadir, The last bus leaves at 20.30. From Inezgane to Agadir city centre you can take bus number 20, 24 or 28. If you would rather take a shared taxi it will cost you about the same.

A taxi from the airport to Agadir takes about 20 minutes.

It is also possible to hire a vehicle from any of the car rental agencies at the airport.

Photo: Juan Garces

Address: Al-Massira Airport, Agadir

Phone: +212 528 839 112

Internet: www.agadir-airport.com

Email: m.oudrhiri@onda.ma

Passport / Visa

Citizens of the European Union, as well as the United States, Australia, and dozens of world countries can enter and remain in Morocco visa-free for up to 90 days. Look up individual prerequisites prior to travel in order to possibly apply for visa in time.

Photo: TukTuk Design/Shutterstock.com

Best Time to Visit Agadir

The best time to visit Agadir depends largely on how much heat you can take: June through August are peak tourist season, and that's when temperatures are at their highest, but weather generally remains warm and pleasant all through the rest of the year (even though chances of rain and clouds are higher then).

Photo: VectorA/Shutterstock.com

Public Transport

The central parts of Agadir are walkable, but if you get tired, there are plenty of local buses to take you to nearby beaches or suburbs of the city. Remember to have coins to pay for the ticket since the driver doesn't carry a lot of change.

The main local bus station is located next to the main grand taxi rank at the south end of Rue de Fes, approx. 20 minutes drive from the city centre. It is very usual to arrive at Inezgane though, which is the bus hub of the region.

Photo: Pierre-Luc Auclair

Address: Rue de Fes, Agadir

Taxi

By far the easiest and quickest way to get around town is by the cream-coloured Grand taxi or the orange Petit taxi. You can find them either at the taxi rank at the South end of Rue de Fes or Rue Yacoub el-Mansour in New Talborjt or by hailing one off the street.

The Petit taxis are only allowed to drive inside the city. The Grand taxis only take a minimum of 6 passengers, but you can also pay extra and hire the whole taxi. Fares are charged on the meter or discussed in advance.

Photo: ArrivalGuides

Post

Stamps can be bought at souvenir shops, hotels and at post offices around town. The larger outlets are open Monday to Friday 8am to 4:15pm and Saturday 8am to 11:45am. The main post office can be found at:

Photo: Andy Fuchs

Address: Avenue du Prince Moulay Abdellah, Agadir

Internet: www.poste.ma

Pharmacy

There are several pharmacies in the city, many of them found along Boulevard Hassan II and avenue Prince Moulay Abdellah. Most of them are open Monday to Saturday 9am-11:30am, 3:30pm-8pm and 9pm-12:30am. For information on pharmacies that are open after-hours, see the list on the front door window.

Pharmacie Founty:

Photo: Gemma Garner

Address: Boulevard Hassan II, Agadir

Phone: +212 5288 44023

Telephone

Country code: +212 Area code: 028

Photo: Jardson Almeida

Electricity

Increasingly 220 volts; round two-pin plugs are standard.

Photo: Stirling Tschan

Population

750,000

Currency

Moroccan dirham (Dh), 1 dirham = 100 centimes

Opening hours

Banks: Mon-Fri 8:30am-11:30am and 2:30pm-4:30pm

Businesses: Mon-Sat 9am-1pm and 3pm-7pm

Emergency numbers

Police / Fire / Medical: 190

Tourist information

Office National Marocain de Tourisme (ONMT)

On the upper level of Building Iguenouane

Corner of avenue du Prince Moulay Abadallah and avenue Prince Sidi Mohammed

Opening hours: Mon-Thu 8:30am-12pm and 2:30pm-6:30pm, Fri 8:30am-11:30am and 2:30pm-6:30pm

Phone: +212 28 846 377

